UMD

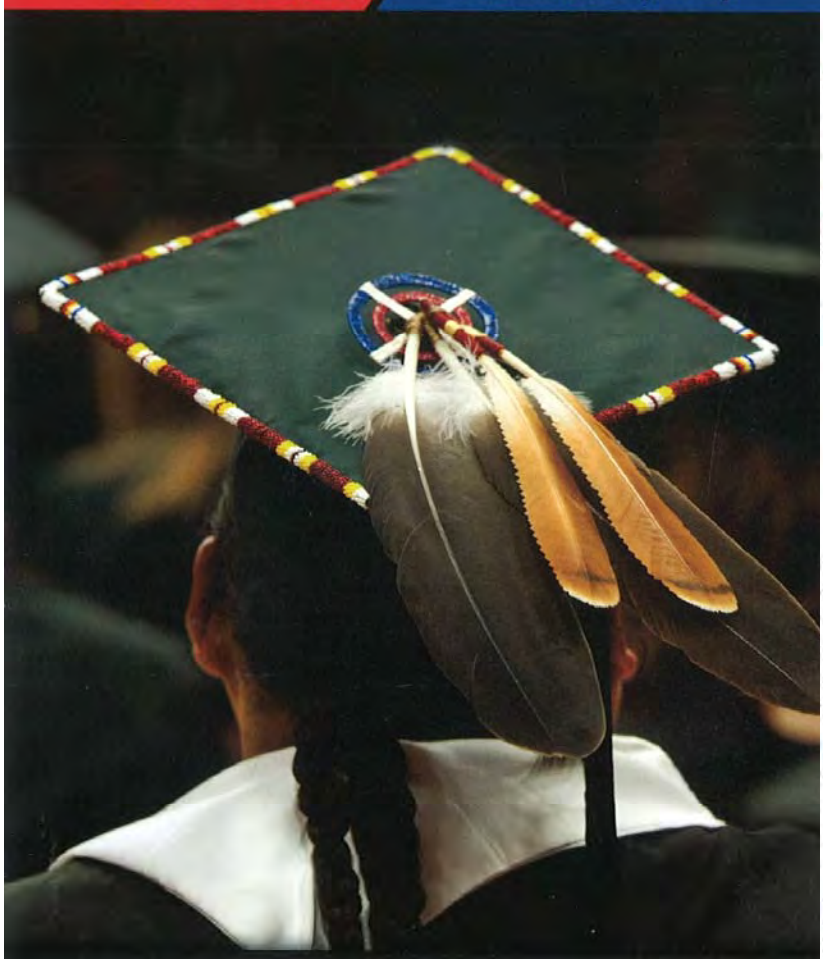
UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA DULUTH

Driven to Discover

DEPARTMENT OF AMERICAN INDIAN STUDIES

Bachelor of Arts
Tribal Administration & Governance (TAG)

Master of Arts
Tribal Administration & Governance (MTAG)



www.d.umn.edu/~umdais

The Master of Arts Degree in Tribal Administration & Governance (MTAG) is offered primarily online.

The Bachelor of Arts Degree in Tribal Administration & Governance (TAG) is offered entirely online.

"The University of Minnesota is an equal opportunity educator and employer".

Bachelor of Arts Degree

Tribal Administration & Governance (TAG)

The bachelor of arts degree in Tribal Administration & Governance (TAG) is designed to prepare students to work for Tribes. This major combines fundamental courses in Business Administration from the Labovitz School of Business & Economics with courses focused on Tribal Sovereignty, Tribal Governance, and Federal Indian Law and Policy. Students will gain the capacity to provide strategic management and manage human capital in tribal contexts as well as understand significant federal statutes and policies that apply to Native nations. All required courses for the TAG major are completed online.

- Students may transfer in with an AA degree or the Minnesota Transfer Curriculum and complete the required TAG courses completely online in two years;

OR

- Students who are beginning their undergraduate education can come to UMD and take courses to fulfill the UMD liberal education requirements while taking the online courses for the TAG major.

Apply Online

Visit www.d.umn.edu/undergraduate-admissions

- Required credits to graduate with this degree: 120
- Required credits within the major: 54

Questions?

Call 218-726-8771 or visit the Department of American Indian Studies website at www.d.umn.edu/~umdais.

Master of Arts Degree

Tribal Administration & Governance (MTAG)

The entire program is designed to serve working adults offering weekend and online classes. Weekend sessions meet four times per semester on Friday evening and all day Saturday; students may attend in person or participate by remote connection for weekend sessions. Students who participate in the Master of Tribal Administration & Governance program will gain a firm grounding in the principles of sovereignty, ethics, law, management, budgets, and leadership – to benefit tribal governments in the years to come.

Apply Online

Visit www.umdmtag.org

- Bachelor's degree (preferred minimum GPA of 3.0)
- Personal statement (300 words)
- Two letters of recommendation

Degree Requirements

Each cohort will complete the same sequence of courses totaling 38 credits. Unofficial transcripts or academic records, two letters of recommendation, and a personal statement must be uploaded directly to the ApplyYourself online application. The personal statement should include what you hope to get out of the MTAG program and accomplish in tribal administration and governance.* Official transcripts or academic records will be required only if you are admitted.

Questions?

Call 218.726.7332 or email umdmtag@d.umn.edu.