13.1 Informal Disputes Resolution.

Any Employee or Dependent who disagrees with a determination made by the Administrator may request a hearing before the Appeal Board. Any Employee or Dependent shall file a written request for a hearing before the Appeal Board within fifteen (15) days of receipt of a disputed written decision from the Administrator. "Filed" means delivered to the address indicated in the Administrator's decision before 5 p.m. If the Employee or Dependent files with the Appeal Board a request for a hearing, the Administrator may, within thirty (3) days, set a date on which the parties, or their legal representatives, may meet with one member of the Board or a mediator selected by the Administrator to discuss and attempt to resolve the issues through mediation. The mediator shall moderate the discussion and may offer opinions and advice to the parties but will not reach any decision on the issues. If the Employee or Dependents and the Employer's representative reach an agreement on any of the issues, such agreement will be reduced to writing by the parties and will be binding on the parties. Failure of any Employee or Dependent to request a hearing within the time specified herein renders the Administrator's decision final and waives any further right to appeal that decision to the Appeal Board or otherwise.

13.2 Hearing Before Appeal Board.

If no meeting is requested under Section 13.1, or if a meeting under Section 13.1 fails to resolve the issue, the matter will be scheduled for a hearing before the full Appeal Board within ninety (90) days of the receipt of a written request for a hearing from the Employee or Dependents. The Appeal Board will hear the issue(s) de novo.

C. COMPOSITION OF APPEAL BOARD.

The members of the Appeal Board will include one member selected by the Council, one member selected by the employees of the Tribe and one other member approved by the first two members and the Council. All members must have education equivalent to not less than two years of college with a full-time course load with a preference for persons with legal or medical education, experience and training. In lieu of a three member Appeals Board, the Council may appoint a single arbitrator who is an attorney at law with not less than five years experience or an arbitrator with a nationally recognized dispute resolution organization such as the American Arbitration Association or the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Service ("JAMS"). If a single arbitrator is appointed, he or she shall have no prior business or financial relationship with the Tribe, any of its political or economic subdivisions or enterprises, the Tribe's insurer, or the Employee, or any other relationship with a party to a proceeding which might tend to compromise the arbitrator's impartiality. Payment by the Tribe for his or her services as an arbitrator shall not disqualify the arbitrator from serving on the Appeal Board.

D. CONDUCT OF HEARING.

The Appeal Board will consider evidence, hear witnesses and receive exhibits in keeping with its goal of making a just final determination.

E. STANDARD OF PROOF.

The Appeal Board will weigh the evidence, testimony of witnesses, and exhibits and will make its decision on the basis of the preponderance of evidence and credibility of the evidence and witnesses.

F. BURDEN OF PROOF.

The burden of proof in any hearing before the Appeal Board will be on the Employee or Dependents. A Dependent shall at any time upon request furnish the Administrator with proof satisfactory to the Administrator of the nature, amount and extent of the contribution by the Employee for such Dependent's support and shall have the burden of proof on such issue in any hearing before the Appeal Board.

G. RIGHT TO COUNSEL.

The Employee or Dependents may have legal representation at any hearing before the Appeal Board. The cost of representation will be borne by the Employee or Dependents.

H. LAW TO APPLY.

The Administrator and Appeal Board shall follow Tribal law. In the absence of tribal law, California case law may be used as a non-binding source of guidance.

I. FINAL DECISION.

Any final Decision of the Appeals Board must represent the concurrence of a majority of two of the Board members, unless the Tribe has elected binding arbitration as provided in Section 13.2.C. An appeal Board Decision must be issued in writing and copies must be mailed to all interested parties. The Decision shall generally review the evidence and testimony and may compare the merits of the evidence or testimony of the opposing parties. The Decision shall state the final determination of the Appeal Board on all issues before it. All Decisions of the Board are final. No attorneys' fees, costs or punitive damages shall be awarded against any Employer in such action.

J. EFFECT OF REQUEST FOR HEARING.

1. During the pendency of the action, the Employee or Dependents shall continue to receive all benefits approved by the Administrator in its original written decision, but shall not receive any new benefits claimed before the Appeal Board.
2. Payments made to claimant during the pendency of the action shall not be recouped or recovered by the Administrator or the Employer, except in the case of fraud.

Section 14. Acts Outside Course or Scope of Employment.

- 14.1 Employees determined to be acting outside of the course or scope of their employment shall be afforded no coverage under this Ordinance.

 - F. Where the injury arises out of voluntary participation in any off-duty recreational, social, or athletic activity not constituting a part of the Employee's work related duties, except where these activities are a reasonable expectancy of, or are expressly or impliedly required by, the employment.

Section 15. Benefits.

15.1 Worker's Compensation benefits shall include:

- A. Medical Costs Covered. Usual and customary medical costs will be approved by the Administrator.
- B. Medical Service Providers. Medical Services and providers will be approved by the Administrator.

The time for filing a Claim shall not begin to run until the Employer or Dependents are aware, or by the exercise of reasonable diligence should have been aware, of the relationship between the injury or death and the employment.

Section 17. Compromise and Release.

Nothing in this Ordinance shall impair the rights of the parties to compromise any liability that is claimed to exist under this Ordinance on account of injury, disease or death, subject to the provisions herein. After reaching a compromise, a copy of the release or compromise agreement signed by both the claimant and the Administrator shall be presented to the Worker's Compensation Committee for approval. If approved, the Administrator shall enter an award based on the release or compromise agreement.

Section 18. Claim Closure.

An Employee's claim shall be closed when the Administrator determines that the injured Employee has reached the point where no further material improvement would reasonably be expected from medical treatment, or for the reasons state in this Ordinance.

Section 19. Recovery or Payments Made Due to Error, Mistake, Erroneous Adjudication, Fraud, Etc.

19.1 Wherever any payment of Compensation under this Ordinance is made because of clerical error, mistaken identity, innocent misrepresentation by or on the behalf of the recipient thereof mistakenly acted upon, or any other circumstances of a similar nature not induced by fraud, the recipient thereof shall repay it. The Administrator must make a claim for such repayment or recoupment within one year of making any such payment or it will be deemed that any claim therefore has been waived. The Administrator may exercise his or her discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any such timely claim where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

19.2 Whenever any payment of Compensation under this Ordinance has been made pursuant to a determination by the Administrator and timely protest or appeal therefrom has been made, where the final decision is that any such payment was made pursuant to an erroneous adjudication, the recipient thereof shall repay it. The Administrator may exercise his or her discretion to waive, in whole or in part, the amount of any such timely claim where the recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

19.3 Whenever any payment of benefits under this Ordinance has been induced by fraud, the recipient thereof shall repay any such payment together with a penalty of 50 percent of the total of any such payments. Such repayment or recoupment must be demanded within one year of the discovery of the fraud.

Section 20. Subrogation of Claims.

- B. "Employer" includes insurer providing the insurance required by Section 10.
- C. "Employer" means the Tribe.

20.2 Survival of action. The death of the employee or of any other person, does not abate any right of action established by this chapter.

20.3 Action against third person; rights of employee and employer. The claim of an employee does not affect his or her claim or right of action for all damages proximately resulting from the injury or death against any person other than the employer. Any employer who pays, or becomes obligated to pay compensation, or who pays, or becomes obligated to pay salary in lieu of compensation, or who pays or becomes obligated to pay an amount to the Department of Industrial Relations pursuant to California Labor Code Section 4706.5, may likewise make a claim or bring an action against the third person. In the latter event the employer may recover in the same suit, in addition to the total amount of compensation, damages for which he or she was liable including all salary, wage, pension, or other benefits paid to the employee or to his or her dependents.

20.4 Copy of complaint; proof of service; joinder of plaintiffs; consolidation of actions. If either the employee or the employer brings an action against such third person, he shall forthwith give to the other a copy of the complaint by personal service or certified mail. Proof of such service shall be filed in such action. If the action is brought by either the employer or employee, the other may, at any time before trial on the facts, join as party plaintiff or shall consolidate his action, if brought independently.

20.5 Action by employer alone; evidence of compensation payments and liability. If the action is prosecuted by the employer alone, evidence of any amount which the employer has paid or become obligated to pay by reason of the injury or death of the employee is admissible, and such expenditures or liability shall be considered as proximately resulting from such injury or death in addition to any other items of damage proximately resulting therefrom.

20.6 Action by employee; evidence of compensation payments and liability or of loss of employee's earning capacity; proof of other items of damage. If the employee joins in or prosecutes such action, either the evidence of the amount of disability indemnity or death benefit paid or to be paid by the employer or the evidence of loss of earning capacity by the employee shall be admissible, but not both. Proof of all other items of damage to either the employer or employee proximately resulting from such injury or death is admissible and is part of the damages.

20.7 Actions against third party; payment of excess recovery to employee; employer's lien against judgment; costs and fees. In the event of suit against such third party:

- A. If the action is prosecuted by the employer alone, the court shall first order paid from any judgment for damages recovered the reasonable litigation expenses incurred in preparation and prosecution of such action, together with a reasonable attorney's fee which shall be based solely upon the services rendered by the employer's attorney in effecting recovery both for the benefit of the employer and the employee. After the payment of such expenses and attorney's fees, the court shall apply out of the amount of such judgment an amount sufficient to reimburse the employer for the amount of his expenditure for compensation together with any amounts to which he may be entitled as special damages under Section 19.3 and shall order any excess paid to the injured employee or other person entitled thereto.

- B. If the action is prosecuted by the employee alone, the court shall first order paid from any judgment for damages recovered the reasonable litigation expenses incurred in preparation and prosecution of such action, together with a reasonable attorney's fee which shall be based solely upon the services rendered by the employee's attorney in effecting recovery both for the benefit of the employee and the employer. After the payment of such expenses and attorney's fee the court shall, on application of the employer, allow as a first lien against the amount of such judgment for damages, the amount of the employer's expenditure for compensation together with any amounts to which he may be entitled as special damages under Section 19.3.
- C. If the action is prosecuted both by the employee and the employer, in a single action or in consolidated actions, and they are represented by the same agreed attorney or by separate attorneys, the court shall first order paid from any judgment for damages recovered, the reasonable litigation expenses incurred in preparation and prosecution of such action or actions, together with reasonable attorneys' fees based solely on the services rendered for the benefit of both parties where they are represented by the same attorney, and where they are represented by separate attorneys, based solely upon the service rendered in each instance by the attorney in effecting recovery for the benefit of the party represented. After the payment of such expenses and attorneys' fees the court shall apply out of the amount of such judgment for damages an amount sufficient to reimburse the employer for the amount of his expenditures for compensation together with any other amounts to which he may be entitled as special damages under Section 19.3.
- D. The amount of reasonable litigation expenses and the amount of attorneys' fees under subdivisions A, B, and C of this section shall be fixed by the court. Where the employer and employee are represented by separate attorneys they may propose to the court, for its consideration and determination, the amount and division of such expenses and fees.

Section 21. Claim Files and Records Confidential.

Information contained in the claims files and record of injured Employees under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed confidential and shall not be open to public inspection. The Employee, Dependents or representatives of the same, be it an individual or an organization, may review a claim file or receive specific information therefrom upon the presentation of the signed authorization of the claimant. The Employer or its duly authorized representatives may review any files of their own injured Employees in connection with any pending claims. Physicians treating or examining Employees claiming benefits under this Ordinance, or physicians giving medical advice to the Administrator regarding any claim may, at the discretion of the Administrator, inspect the claims files and records of the injured Employee; and other persons may make such inspection, at the Administrator's discretion, when such persons are rendering assistance to the Administrator at any stage of the proceedings on any matter pertaining to administration of this Ordinance.

Section 22. Severability.

If any part of this Ordinance is held to be invalid, the remainder shall continue to be in full force and effect to the maximum extent possible.

Section 23. Effective Date, Amendment.

This Ordinance shall be effective from the date of its approval by the Tribal Council. This Ordinance may be amended in accordance with the tribal law.

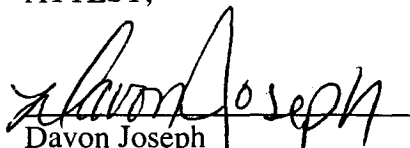

Section 24. Sovereign Immunity.

Nothing hereunder is intended to be or shall be interpreted to be a waiver of Sovereign Immunity of the Tribe from unconsented suits in Tribal, Federal or State court, or administrative proceeding except to the extent expressly stated herein.
